[1] Letter No. M.1-C.1190/44-45, dated the 12th June 1945.

From the Mysore Commissioner in Mysore,

Recommending in the circumstances explained sanction to re-grade of the Agama Pandits of his office and those of the Maharaja's Sanskrit College to Rs.30-3-60-5-120.

The grade of the Agamiks of the M.C's office was fixed more than viz., 12 years ago, Rs. 30-2-50. Pandits Kodandaramachar and Krishna Deekshita, the present Agamiks of that office, having urged for the revision of their grades in 1938, the M.C's proposal to revise the grade to Rs 25-2½-60 was sanctioned in G.O. No. 1309-1 Mysrai 174-38-2, dated the 11th February 1939. Subsequently, in November 1942, the grade was further revised and brought up on a level with that of the II Division clerks of that office viz., 30-3-60, in G.O. No. R-4404-5/Mysrai 109-42-2, dated the 3rd November 1942, thus conceding the original request of the Agamiks that their grade should be revised from Rs 30-2-50 to Rs.30-3-60-30 as to correspond to the grade of the II Div. Clerks in that office.

(2) Of the two Pandits the former (who has recently been granted a further extension of service for one year from 16.10.45), has reached the maximum pay of the grade Rs. 30-3-60: the latter is drawing a pay of Rs. 51/- in that grade and has put in a service of 8½ years approximately.

(3) There are 7 Pandits in the Agama Department of the Sanskrit College at Mysore. Three of them are senior Pandits drawing Rs. 100/- p.m. each in the grade Rs. 50-5-100; and the remaining four are junior Pandits in the grade Rs 30-3-45,— two of whom have reached the maximum, the remaining two being new entrants into service having put in a service of 3 to 4 years.

(4) Govt having sanctioned the revision of the scales of pay of the tutorial staff of the Maharaja's College, in their order No E 4339-41 | Edn 32-42-35, dated the 4th March 1944, the Principal of the College has recommended to the M C that the grades of the teachers working in the Agama Deptt of the institution may also be revised on the same lines as indicated in the G O, namely, the grade of the Sr Pandits to be changed from Rs 50-5-100 to Rs 80-5-120 and that of the Jr Pandits from Rs 30-3-45 to Rs 50-4-70.

(5) The M C now proposes that instead of having two separate grades for the Agama Pandits a uniform scale may be sanctioned, so that any Pandit starting service on Rs 30/- may reach a maximum of Rs 120/- p.m. in the grade Rs 30 3-60-5-120 — which is better than that of the 2nd Drn. officials in the Sect. The grade suggested by the M C places the Agamiks on a far better position compared with the other officials in the M C's office with the exception of only the Manager (Rs 125-5-150) and the Head clerk (Rs 100-5-120)

(6) Details of the service, pay, etc of the Agamiks of the M C's office and the proposition statement indicating the extra cost involved have not been furnished by the M C. These may be called for, before consulting the Financial Deptt

[3] Letter No. M-1-C-1190/44-45, dated the 27th June 1945 from the Mysore Commissioner in Mysore, forwarding a proposition statement and a statement showing the details re: the age, qualification, etc., of the Agama Pandits of his office, with their service registers.

(10) The statements showing the qualification and other particulars relating to the Agamiks of the M.C's Office and the Pandits of the Agama Dept of the Sanskrit College are flagged 'U' and 'V' respectively.

(11) The Senior Agama Pandits of the College are all drawing Rs. 100/- p.m. in the grade of Rs 50-5-100. When they reached the maximum pay of the grade is not mentioned — their S Rs have also not been sent Two of them have put in a service of more than 14 years and the third more than 14 years. the former are aged 49 years and the latter 51 yea The two junior Agama Pandits who have reached the maximum pay of the grade Rs. 30-3-45, are aged 35 years Of the remaining two junior Pandits one is aged only 26 years and has already earned two increments raising his pay to Rs. 36/- having put in a service of nearly 4 years. The other junior Pandit is aged 23½ years, has put in a service of 3½ years, but he is drawing a pay of only Rs. 27/- p.m in grade Rs 25-2-35, which is inferior to that of the other three junior Pandits.

(12) Pandit Krishna Deekshit, the junior Agamik of the M.C's Office is aged 40, has put in a service of 9½ years and is drawing a pay of Rs. 51/- p.m in the grade Rs 30-3-60.

(13) The proposition statement shows that the extra cost in the case of the Agama Pandits of the M.C's office is Rs 24-10-8 per individual in the case of the Senior Agama Pandits of the College at Mysore it is Rs. 14 9/9, and in respect of the 3 junior Pandits it amounts to Rs 8-5-4, but in respect of the junior most Pandit it comes to Rs 16 10 8. The total extra involved is Rs. 135-5-4 per annum or Rs 1,624-0-0 per annum. ~~Subd with refee to paras 6 and 8 supra~~ (14) The M.C proposes that the extra cost may be met from the Muzrai Establishment Fund. Of the total cost of the Establishment of the Muzrai Commissioner's Office amounting to Rs. 13,284 per annum, only half viz., Rs. 6,642/- is charged to the Muzrai Establishment Fund, the other half being met from State Funds under "13 Muzrai Institutions - 1 Superintendence." In the case of the Agama Department of the Sanskrit College at Mysore, the entire Establishment charges are borne by Govt. — the charges being met out of the provision made under "13 Muzrai Institutions - A Sanskrit College and Pathashalas (1) Maharajas Sanskrit College - Agama Section Establishment." In the circumstances, it does not seem to be proper to debit the entire extra cost to the Muzrai Estt. Fund. On the other hand, the extra charges should be debited to the State Funds as well as the M.E Fund in the same proportion as the Establishment Charges of the M.C's office and the Agama Dept of the College.

(15) Hence, of the aggregate extra cost of Rs. 1,624/- per annum, half of the extra cost involved in respect of the Agamiks of the M.C's office, viz., Rs. 24 10.8 p.m or Rs. 296.0.0 p.a. is debitable to the M.E. Fund, & the balance of Rs. 110.10.8 p.m or Rs 1,328/- p.a. is chargable to the State Funds, under "13 Muzrai Institutions."

Stated that his proposals for revision of scales of Agama Pandits may be dropped

(36) The revision of the scales of pay of the Agamiks will lie over for the present as ordered by the Dewan on 25-9-45 for the reasons mentioned. But the case of the Agama Pandits of the Maharaja's Sanskrit College, which stands on a different footing, deserves consideration. The Muzrai Commissioner's proposals in respect of these Pandits - which are calculated to place them on the same position as teachers in the other Branches of the Sanskrit College and which have also been agreed to by the Finance Department (para 24) may, I think, be approved.

(46) The file which was returned by the private Secretary to Dewan with instructions for furnishing additional information regarding the Agamika and Agama Pandits of the Mysore Commissioner's office, Bangalore and Sanskrit College, Mysore, respectively is resubmitted for orders.

(47) Long before the post of the Mysore Commissioner was created, the Agamikas were employed in Secretariat, forming a part of the establishment, under the Mysore Superintendent or Under Secretary to Government, Mysore Department. In accordance with the conditions prevailing in those old days, these Agamikas were given a low pay of about Rs.15 to Rs.20/- p.m. When the Revenue Commissioner was appointed as the Mysore Commissioner and a separate office was created for him, the Agamikas were transferred to his establishment.

(48) The scale of pay of the Agamikas (which was revised in 1920 A.D. on Horsebourley) was Rs.25-50 this grade was revised to Rs.75-5-100 in 1948-49 and the present grade of Rs.100-5-150 was sanctioned in 1951 A.D. In recommending the grant of enhanced pay to the Agamikas of his office, the Mysore Commissioner stated that both the Agamikas are learned Pandits, profficient in Agama Shastras, that their services are useful in matters relating to the expression of opinion under Agama Shastras, that they are entrusted with duties of examining the time of worship in Mysore Institutions with a view to verify whether the rituals and ceremonies prescribed in the respective Agamas are being followed in connection with the daily services, and that their services are not only being utilised in connection with consecretion ceremonies in and repairs to Ashtabundhana in Muzrai and non-Muzrai institutions but also for teaching students of Sri Chamarajdra Maha Patashala, Bangalore, and that therefore the pay of the Agamiks which was low having been fixed long ago, should be on par with the scale of pay of Pandits of the Veda Patashalas at Bangalore and the Sanskrit College at Mysore.

(43) The Agama Department of the Sanskrit College at Mysore was founded in 1920-21, soon after the formation of the General Muzrai Fund, in order to create facilities for imparting knowledge regarding the meaning and method of temple worship -- followed by the three schools of philosophy. Six appointments for teaching Agama Shastra were -- sanctioned, three on Rs.25-5-40 and the remaining three on Rs.20-1-25. While passing orders on the training of Pandits in Agama Shastras, Govt. proposed to appoint the three persons selected to undergo specialised training, if their performance during the period of training was proved to be satisfactory, as teachers of -- Agamas in the Agama Department of the College on Rs.50-5-100. Subsequently, Govt. sanctioned the appointment of three Pandits recommended by the Muzrai Commissioner, as teachers in the # said Department of the College, in the above grade, which continues till now.

(44) The scales existing in the other similar institutions (the particulars furnished below show the relative positions of the teachers in the institutions concerned) are noted below:-

(47) The Agamiks have not been treated on the same footing as the Agama teachers of the Maharaja's College. No comparison has been drawn at any time between ~~theachers~~ the appointments.

(48) The scales of pay in the Maharaja's Sanskrit College (for other classes of teachers), those in the Bangalore College and the scales now proposed for the Agama class are shown below:-

Of other classes in Maharaja's College.	(Veda & Sahitya Deptt) Bangalore Sanskrit College.	Scale proposed for Maharaja's College. Agama Deptt.

General Secretary to the Government of Mysore, Banga

VPV

Sir,

Enhancement of scale of pay of the Agama Pandits of the Office of the Muzrai Commissioner in Mysore, and of the Maharaja's Sanskrit College, Mysore.

I have the honor to state that the two Agama Pandits of this offic have submitted a representation, requesting for the revision of their scale of pay and keep it on a par with that of the pandits of the Maharaja's Sanskrit College, Mysore. It is urged that, while the grade pay of the Senior pandits in the Sanskrit College is 80-5-120, and that of the junior pandits is 50-4-70, the 3 Senior Agama Pandits of the College are placed ~~also~~ only in grade 50-5-100 and the 4 Junior Agama Pandits in the grade of Rs 30-3-45. Both the College Committee and the Principal have recommended that the pay of these Agama Pandits--Senior and Junior--may be raised to Rs 80-5-120 and Rs 50-4-70, respectively, so that their grade may be on a par with that of their other colleagues.

The President of the Agama Thraya Mandali has represented that the grade of the existing 3 Senior Agama Pandits of the Mysore College, and the two Agama Pandits of this office, may be fixed at Rs 80-5-120 or Rs 60-5-120, new entrants being given Rs 30-3-60-5-120, and the other 4 Junior Pandits of the College placed in the grade of Rs 30-3-60.

The Agama Pandits of this office have been rendering very useful service and they are, invariably, consulted in all matters relating to consecration ceremonies, selection of places of worship, Ashtabhandana, Pratishte, and such other religious and shastraic functions in all the Muzrai and non-Muzrai Institutions, all over the State. Besides, they are required to examine the worship in Muzrai Institutions, with a view to see that the rituals, as prescribed under the Agama Shastras are being duly conducted. Their services are also utilised in the Sri Chamarajendra Veda Maha Patasala, Bangalore, where they are taking Agama Classes. Consistent with the dignity and responsibility of the Office they hold, it is but fitting that the pay of the two pandits of this office should be, at least, equal to that of the Senior Agama Pandits of the Maharaja's

Sanskrit College, Mysore, if not higher. Sriman N. Kodandaramachar, Vaikhanasa Agama Pandit, has reached the maximum of Rs 60, and has been given an extension of service by one year from 16th October 1944. A recommendation has also been made for the continuance of his services for a further period of one year from 16th October 1945. Sriman Krishna Deekshit, Saivagama Pandit, has been getting Rs 51 p.m., in grade Rs 30-3-60.

If the grade of these pandits is revised to Rs 30-3-60-5-120, as recommended by the Agamathraya Mandali, the promotion will be gradual and the expenditure also will not be so heavy, and the extra cost, on this account may also be met from the closing balance of the Muzrai Establishment Fund Budget, during the current year, due provision being made for the purpose from 1945-46.

The same grade of pay may, perhaps, be sanctioned in the case of the Agama Pandits in the Maharaja's Sanskrit College at Mysore. This will facilitate the interchange of hands. The extra cost will be considerably minimised by the adoption of this scale and may be met from 13 Muzrai Institutions.

I request that sanction of Government may kindly be obtained to the above proposals, very early.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

Muzrai Commissioner.

Your most Respected Excellency,

We, the undersigned Pandits (Assistants and Professors) of the Agama Department of the Maharaja's Sanskrit College, Mysore, beg to submit the following application for your benevolent consideration and favourable orders.

About two years back, Government were pleased to sanction grades, Rs.50-4-70 and Rs.80-5-120 to the Senior Assistant Teachers and the Professors of the Maharaja's Sanskrit College, Mysore, respectively. The same grades were graciously recommended to be given to us also by the College Managing Committee to the Government through the Muzrai Commissioner. But as our ill luck would have it, we learn that the Government have ordered that the question may lie over for the present. It is so well-known that we have been working in this College satisfactorily for the past several years and students are being successfully and effectively trained for Agama work in the temples in and outside the State. All along the Pandits of the Agama Department have been given the same grades as those for the Pandits of the Maharaja's Sanskrit College.

We, therefore, request that the question may kindly be reconsidered favourably by Your Excellency and the grades Rs.50-4-70 and Rs.80-5-120 as recommended by the College Managing Committee and the Muzrai Commissioner may kindly be sanctioned for us and thereby help us in these hard days.

We pray earnestly and always that God may bestow His choicest blessings on His Highness the Maharaja and on Your Excellency.

We beg to remain,
Most Respected Excellency,
Your most obedient servants.
